Holiday Homework Value Education

Theme: "Know Yourself, Know Others"

Instructions:

- 1. Complete one activity every 2-3 days.
- 2. Use a scrap file to complete the tasks.
- 3. Decorate your pages with drawings, stickers, or colored borders.
- 4. You may take help from parents or elders.

Activity 1: My Emotion Wheel

Objective: Understand and express different emotions. Instructions:

- Draw a big circle and divide it into 6 parts.
- Label each part with a common emotion: Happy, Sad, Angry, Excited, Scared, and Surprised.
- Draw a face that matches each emotion.

Write one sentence about a time you felt that emotion. (E.g., "I felt happy when I played with my puppy.")

Objective: Learn about internal and external body parts.

Instructions:

- Fold a paper in half. On one side, draw a boy/girl showing external parts (like eyes, ears, hands, feet).
- On the other side, draw and label internal parts (like brain, heart, lungs, stomach).

Write 1–2 lines about what each part helps us do.

(E.g., "The heart pumps blood," or "Eyes help us see.")

 Activity 3: My Kindness Jar

Objective: Practice daily acts of kindness.

Instructions:

- Take a small jar or box and label it "Kindness Jar".
- Write at least 5 acts of kindness you did during the holidays on small slips of paper and put them in the jar.

Examples: Helping mom, sharing toys, saying thank you, feeding birds, etc. Paste 2–3 slips in your scrapbook with drawings.

Efforts, creativity, innovation and hard work will be appreciated.
